A veteran can validate status in two ways: (1) Veteran or military spouse must provide proof of service in the form of a DD214, ID card (Active, Reserve, Guard, Retiree, VA) or state driver's license with a veteran marking on the license or (2) Provide third-party validation provider from Sheer ID. The spouse of a veteran is validated by the military member's credentials.

*Offer valid for new Merchant Services customers only. Offers good for veteran business owners, service members or spouses, who are currently on active duty, in reserve status and guard members, or honorably discharged veterans. You are responsible for accuracy of the information you provide. Clover, First Data Merchant Services LLC, its affiliates, vendors and/or third-party provider(s) disclaim any and all liability arising out of any inaccuracies as a result of use of such information or data.

Receive a 50% discount on purchased Clover hardware or subscription. Limit 3 devices per account.

The processing fee rebate offer applies only to transactions processed on the federal holidays of Independence Day and Veterans Day, between 12:01 a.m., Eastern Time and 11:59 p.m., Eastern Time. The rebate will appear on the merchant statement up to 60 days after it is applied, and will be given for qualifying transaction processing fees. Interchange fees, charged by the brand networks, chargebacks, billbacks, fines and disputed transactions are expressly excluded from rebate eligibility. If there are no credit transactions performed on those exact days, the merchant client will not receive a rebate. Minimum processing fees may apply to this offer. Terms and conditions apply. This offer is subject to change.
