FINANCING YOUR RV AT THE DEALERSHIP

ABOUT BECU INDIRECT DEALER FINANCING

Credit Union Direct Lending (CUDL) is a convenient and secure option for members looking to buy an RV while at select dealerships.² If you are already approved for a RV loan, you will need to complete a credit application at the dealership as well for processing purposes (this will not impact your credit score).

When you use CUDL to finance at the dealership, you'll enjoy the same low rates and flexible terms as you would get through a BECU location or online.³ And, you'll be able to drive away with your new or pre-owned RV the same day!

For a complete list of participating dealers, please visit becu.org/cudirect.
